TRAVEL WITH
BRYN MAWR

February 27 – March 7, 2025

Dear Alumnae/i and Friends,

Join us for an enriching journey through some of England's most celebrated sites! From your base in the Georgian town of Woodstock, venture through the poetic countryside to encounter delightful villages and customary gardens, cast together with centuries-old tales.

Together, we'll discover England's quintessential culture, cuisine and welcoming people and uncover the history that helped shape the nation. Thrilling excursions include a trip to Oxford's storied university and the butter-hued villages of the Cotswolds. Follow in Shakespeare's footsteps in his hometown of Stratford-upon-Avon and learn about Sir Winston Churchill while roaming the halls of Blenheim Palace. Experience the lyrical pace of Cotswolds hamlets, host to time-trodden bridleways and footpaths, cozy cottages and tea shops. Plus, engage with a local family at their traditional rural farm and visit Bath, a magical English city!

At the conclusion of your journey, join the greater Bryn Mawr community for an optional extension in London for the Bryn Mawr College International Forum on Friday, March 7 and Saturday, March 8. Featuring a dynamic program around the theme of change, our international community of alumnae/i, faculty, staff, and students will come together for this special in-person event. In addition to panels and speakers, the Forum will offer professional networking and rich social and cultural opportunities throughout the weekend. Learn more at: <https://mawr.life/InternationalForum>.

This well-rounded program features the camaraderie and security of group travel and the services of a professional Travel Director. What makes it even more special is our commitment to education. Throughout your travels, expert guides and lecturers provide meaningful context to enhance your experience. All these elements make for an unbeatable travel value that will generate lots of interest, so guarantee your place by reserving today.

Please call AHI Travel at 1-800-323-7373 with questions regarding this tour.

Sincerely,

Gianna Quinn

ALUMNI CAMPUS
ABROAD®

Oxford

Day 1 | In Transit

Depart for London, England. 🚗

Day 2 | London, England | Woodstock

Arrive in London and transfer 🔄 to Woodstock. Check in to the Macdonald Bear Hotel.

Spend time exploring Woodstock, host to tea shops, inviting pubs and fine museums. Later, gather to enjoy a Welcome Reception and Dinner with your fellow travelers.

Day 3 | Oxford | Woodstock

Oxford. After a satisfying breakfast, head off to the city of Oxford to witness the oldest university in the English-speaking world. Four British kings, one pope and a host of poets, philosophers, authors, scientists and physicists graduated from Oxford. A walking tour showcases the precincts of the colleges. Along the way, take a closer look at one of the colleges.

Blenheim Palace. Welcome to Blenheim Palace, the birthplace of Winston Churchill. This majestic palace was a gift from Queen Anne to General John Churchill, 1st Duke of Marlborough to celebrate his victory at the Battle of Blenheim in 1704. Enjoy a tour of the palace's elegant staterooms, marveling at the priceless collections and portraits. Explore the formal gardens and delight in the sprawling parklands designed by "Capability" Brown.

Day 4 | Stratford-Upon-Avon

Enrichment: English Writing Tradition.

Stratford-Upon-Avon. Witness the medieval market town that kindled William Shakespeare's love stories and venerated tales. Begin at the family house of Anne Hathaway, Shakespeare's true love, and witness her family's heirlooms. Next, visit the Tudor thatched cottage where Shakespeare grew up before becoming the world's greatest dramatist. Step into the rooms where he daydreamed and where he perhaps conjured up his marvelous stories of human emotion and conflict.

Delve further into Shakespearean history as you enjoy exclusive access to the UNESCO-listed Shakespeare Documents. These 400-year-old documents relate to Shakespeare's life events, business dealings and theatrical life. Archivists and Shakespeare experts share insights into the writer's life and noteworthy contributions.

Day 5 | Cotswolds Villages

Cotswolds – A Journey Through an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. Delight in breathtaking rural England as you discover endearing Cotswolds villages, each with its own unique history and character. Visit Stow-on-the-Wold, designed with narrow lanes that allowed for easy shepherding during the wool trade era. Continue to Bourton-on-the-Water, famous for its ancient stone bridges spanning the tranquil river. Admire the market town of Chipping Campden, known for its long High Street in the town center. Drive through Moreton-in-Marsh and Minster Lovell, nestled along the romantic River Windrush.

Family home of Anne Hathaway

Enrichment: Contemporary England.

Day 6 | Cotswolds

AHI Connects | Traditional Cotswolds Life. Visit a sprawling rural farm located in the heart of the Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. Tour the family property and learn about the farm's traditions and operations. Enjoy chatting with the owners and learning about their lives. Then relax over a tasty lunch.

Free Time: Return to Woodstock and make your own plans during an afternoon at leisure.

Day 7 | Bath

Bath. Trace ancient history as you walk

Bourton-on-the-Water through the well-preserved city of Bath, located along the River Avon. Bath was built around the only natural hot spring in Great Britain, and the city was originally an exclusive spa getaway for European aristocrats. Explore the renowned Roman Baths, a true feat of engineering with chambers containing baths, heated rooms and plunge pools. Admire the stunning architecture of Bath Abbey, Pulteney Bridge and the 18th-century Georgian Royal Crescent, a row of 30 terraced houses with Georgian facades and Romanesque columns. During your tour, ponder what life must have been like in Britain so many centuries ago.

Free Time: Enjoy lunch and follow your own path in this sophisticated city. You may wish to indulge at the Thermae Bath Spa or browse Bath's glittering emporiums for a bespoke gift.

Day 8 | Woodstock

Rousham House & Gardens. Travel to the Rousham House and Gardens for a tour of the Gothic manor house and perfectly appointed grounds. Here, the English landscape style highlights the work of British architect William Kent and represents the purest example of an Augustan landscape garden, remaining almost as Kent left it. Take in the many features that delighted 18th-century visitors, such as Venus's Vale, the Cold Bath, the seven-arched Praeneste, and "Eyecatcher," a sham ruin. Three 17th-century walled gardens delight with deep herbaceous borders that spill over the paths; peaches, apricots, plums and pear trees trained against the ancient brick walls; and a pool with a fountain surrounded by roses.

Free Time: After today's adventure, spend an afternoon at leisure in Woodstock.

Raise a toast to your fellow travelers as you cap off your final evening at tonight's Farewell Reception and Dinner.
