

ERDMAN DINING HALL

“As the largest dining unit at Bryn Mawr, Erdman is a fun and positive place to work! With two options of where to work under one dining hall, some students choose to work in our prep area more closely with our amazing chefs in food prep and cooking, and the majority of our students work in the front of house operating the service and distribution of food.

Our shift hours range from as early as 6:30 AM to as late as 8 PM and tend to be a little longer than other dining units, but we try our best to be flexible with our hours to work with the busy schedules of our students. Whether you want to see some of the behind the scenes of our operation or be in the middle of it all, we can't wait for you to #GleedGreen!”
